

The Struggle is Real

Simulcast, April 1st

"The Struggle is Real" features speakers and content from the American Association of Christian Counselors 2016 World Conference

AACC is committed to assisting Christian counselors, the entire "community of care," licensed professionals, pastors, and lay church members with little or no formal training. It is our intention to equip clinical, pastoral, and lay care-givers with biblical truth and psychosocial insights that minister to hurting persons and helps them move to personal wholeness, interpersonal competence, mental stability, and spiritual maturity.

What you'll learn during this event and who's teaching:

Greg Surrat : The Bible and Mental Health. Theology of discipleship and mental health.

Dr. Warren Kinghorn : Clinical diagnoses. The good of labels, and also how Christians need to think past diagnosis and labels.

Dr. Michael Lyles: "Everybody Got Something" - Scientific and Biblical myths and the Samaritan approach.

Frank Page: Suicide. A theology of help. A theology of presence. A theology of life. Frank Page and his wife Dayle lost their daughter, Melissa, to suicide in 2009. Writing from personal experience, he examines the biblical truths that carried him through such a painful time and that minister to him on dark days still known to come around.

Dr. Ron Hawkins: Soul care.

Diane Langber: Abuse/Trauma/Violence - Being a church that follows Christ down into the dungeons of the world.

Ian Jones: Situational depression and transparency. Church, church services and one-anothering.

Timothy Jennings: What do you believe?

Dr. Ed Stetzer: Mental health and the church.

Siang-Yang Tan: Psychology collaborating with the church: A pastor-psychologists perspective and personal experience.
